Dataset Name:
Descriptive, human readable version of the dataset name, as well as the machine readable dataset name
Author(s):

Why it was created:
The data for this project was collected by the Center for Book Arts in New York, NY as part of their usual operations, and was transformed for the purposes of a Digital Humanities Project by a group of graduate students at the Pratt Institute School of Information in Autumn 2024.

Description (of the dataset): *should be 1 sentence
Date Created:
Date last Updated:

What does each record represent? Phrased as "Each row represents… "

What are the idiosyncrasies or limitations of the data to be aware of?

In a table:
Total Columns:
Total Rows:

Each Column Name
Source for the data in each Column
Description of each column
Expected Data Type for each column
        Options:
   ● Brief Text (string)
   ● Paragraph (string)
   ● Date (date)
   ● Address (string)
   ● Personal Name (string)
   ● URL (url)
   ● ID Number (string)
   ● Coordinates (float)

Example Table:

Column Name	Source	Description	Expected Data Type
Subject	CBA collections metadata	Modified list of subject terms assigned by CBA staff- only includes	Brief Text (string) terms related to book arts.	